How to read the liturgical calendar:

- Everything you need has been streamlined into an easy-to-read monthly calendar.
- The vestment color is noted daily by highlighting the dates: In this example, you will see that you will wear red vestments on Sunday, Tuesday and Saturday; green ones on Wednesday and Thursday; and white vestments on Monday and Friday. Un-highlighted dates mean that the vestment color is white.
- Feasts, Obligatory Memorials, and Solemnities are designated, and include the appropriate name of the day (note yellow highlights on example).
- The number of the lectionary readings are noted for each day (note green highlights on example).
- The number of the volume used in the Liturgy of the Hours is noted daily as is the week or proper indicated (note blue highlights on example).
- Important diocesan events are in italics and highlighted in green (not shown on above examples).
- Information regarding rubrics, etc., is included on the pertinent date.
- An *(asterisk) by a date indicates that no funeral Masses are allowed that day. If there is no * (asterisk) you may celebrate a funeral that day.
- Special days, such as Mother's Day, have references to blessings. U.S. holidays are included and the appropriate number for optional lectionary readings is as well.
